3. Grant Yoder – Snider
4. Brandon Nowling – Central
5. Matthew Robson – Peru

2009 Hitters: Don't let the ranking fool you, we had several good hitters in attendance. The 6 foot 6 Jeff McNeely put on a hitting display, spraying ball to all fields with pop. Avon's Dalton Jones consistently squared up balls to go a long with his balance powerful swing. Brennon Gallagher showed good power from the left side with excellent extension and finish to swing. Switch hitters Stryker Salyer and Brady Clark watched their stock soar.

1. Jeff McNeely – Lafayette Jefferson
2. Dalton Jones – Avon
3. Stryker Salyer – Homestead
4. Brennon Gallagher – Bishop Dwenger
5. Brady Clark – Center Grove
6. Tyler Wilson – Valparaiso
7. Austin Rieke – Hamilton SE
8. Cody Johnson – Snider
9. Eric Rigel – Austin
10. Jared Keck – South Ripley
11. Chris Gapinski – John Adams
12. Nick DiMarco – Boone Grove
13. Tyler Krempasky – John Adams
14. Nathan Chandler – Austin
15. Tyler Harris – Northrop

2009 Pitchers: Northrop's Robert Geary saved the best for last as he displayed an 86 mph fastball. Geary's tight late breaking curveball and sinking change-up complemented the good fastball to take top rank. LHP Eric Rigel from Austin High School topped out at 84 mph with a sharp curveball. Tall RHP Jeff McNeely had good life on the fastball and change-up to go with his projectable body.

1. Robert Geary – Northrop
2. Jeff McNeely – Lafayette Jefferson
2. Eric Rigel – Austin
3. Evan Bowman – Tipton
4. Nick Sharp – Chesterton
5. Cody Johnson – Snider
6. Tyler Krempasky – John Adams
7. Brennon Gallagher – Bishop Dwenger

2010 Hitters: Mishawaka's Arneal Squibb took the top ranks for the 2010 hitters. Squibb had a nice and easy swing with good balance, bat speed, and excellent path to the ball.

1. Arneal Squibb – Mishawaka
2. Trey Fankhauser – McCutcheon
3. Colton Summers – Kokomo
4. Ricky Ritter – Southside
5. Brian Thomas – South Ripley
6. Phillip Kuhns – Kokomo
7. Brandon Ramsey – Centerville
8. Parker Holsten – Delta

2010 Pitchers: Kokomo's Phillip Kuhns electric quick arm works which makes him a good looking pitching prospect. Max Majchrzak 6 foot 3 RHP showed a great pitchers body with the fastball to go along with it.

1. Phillip Kuhns – Kokomo
2. Max Majchrzak – Lake Central
3. Colton Summers – Kokomo
4. Brian Thomas – South Ripley
5. Parker Holsten – Delta
6. Trey Fankhauser – McCutcheon
7. Ricky Ritter – Southside

2011 Hitters: Keep your eyes these three hitters! All three 2011 hitters demonstrated great natural hitting ability.

1. Cody Dykema – Lake Central
2. Jordan Kinzer – Homestead
3. Grant Yoder – Snider

2012 Hitter: The one and only 2012 hitter did a great job competing with the older players. Robson has good pull power. Matthew Robson – Peru

2011 Pitchers: Young and full of potential

1. Jordan Kinzer – Homestead
2. Brandon Nowling – Central
3. Cody Dykema – Lake Central

Catchers: Very tight battle for the top catching spot, but at the end of the day Stryker Salyer from Homestead High School ended up on top. Jared Keck had the best pop throw of the day recording a 1.93 along with a great footwork. Avon's Dalton Jones had good catching mechanics and a quick transfer. Salyer overall skills edged the competition. His great set-up, soft hands, quick transfer, and good carry on the throws put him on top.

1. Stryker Salyer – 2009 – Homestead
2. Jared Keck – 2009 – South Ripley
2. Dalton Jones – 2009 – Avon
3. Chris Gapinski – 2009 – John Adams
4. Brandon Ramsey – 2010 – Centerville
5. Nathan Chandler – 2009 – Austin

Infielders: Another tight race in the infield for the top spot. Chris Gapinski from John Adams High School showed good range and solid actions. Center Grove's Brady Clark was smooth. Clark's good hands, angles, and reactions off the bat make him an interesting second baseman at the next level. Phillip Kuhns displayed his athletic ability and quick transfer. Tyler Wilson from Valparaiso HS edges the competition presenting the best velocity on his throws along with good footwork and hands.

1. Tyler Wilson – 2009 – Valparaiso
2. Chris Gapinski – 2009 – John Adams
2. Brady Clark – 2009 – Center Grove
3. Phillip Kuhns – 2010 – Kokomo
4. Jared Keck – 2009 – South Ripley
5. Cody Dykema – 2011 – Lake Central
6. Brian Thomas – 2010 – South Ripley
7. Tyler Harris – 2009 – Northrop

Outfielders: Boone Grove's Nick DiMarco set the pace in the outfield. Even though he was not the hardest thrower, he showed great athletic ability, aggressive approach, and good carry with accuracy on his throws. Right behind him was Tyler Wilson. Wilson had the best positional arm in camp. Several outfielders performed well.

1. Nick DiMarco – 2009 – Boone Grove
2. Tyler Wilson – 2009 – Valparaiso
3. Austin Rieke – 2009 – Hamilton SE
4. Tyler Krempasky – 2009 – John Adams
5. Trey Fankhauser – 2010 – McCutcheon
6. Arneal Squibb – 2010 – Mishawaka
7. Parker Holsten – 2010 – Delta
8. Chris Gapinski – 2009 – John Adams
9. Eric Rigel – 2009 – Austin
10. Ricky Ritter – 2010 – Southside

1B: Jeff McNeely showcased good hands, actions, and athletic ability to secure the top rank in his position.

1. Jeff McNeely – 2009 – Lafayette Jefferson
